TWO CITY CHURCHES MAY FEDERATE

FIRST METHODIST AND FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CONSIDERING

CONSTITUTION PROPOSED

Articles of Federation Submitted to Members of Both Congregations for Consideration.

A movement to federate the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches of this city has been launched by the official boards of the two churches and a proposed constitution as the basis for this federation, has been distributed among the members of both congregations for consideration.

This plan is being followed in many instances and in various places with candid results. Several weeks ago the officials boards of both churches met and discussed such a plan and appointed a committee from each church to investigate the proposition, and to draft a constitution of federation if desired. This committee is composed of C. E. Wells, C. H. Colbert, John Richey Loy Lippman and H. P Swinehart of the First Presbyterian church and C. C. Corwin, George Baker, Bert Tracy, T. L. Wadley and C. C. Leeson of the First Methodist.

To make the federation effective, the constitution must be adopted by the official boards of the federating church and a two thrids majority of the two federating congregations. The congregational vote will be taken Sunday, Jan. 18.

The following are the articles of federation:

Article I. This federation shall be called the Federated church of Maryville, Mo., (Methodist-Presbyterian).

Article II. Its purpose shall be the teaching of the gospel and plan of ethics as taught by Jesus Christ, the public worship of God, the expression of Christian spirit in the spread of the gospel among all peoples and the encouragement of such social matters as may tend toward the upbuilding of the community. The specific purpose of this federation is for increased efficiency and enlarged opportunity.

Article III. The membership shall consist of such as are now members of the two federating churches without change of the particular denomination and of those who from time to time wish to join either denomination. New members shall join the denomination of their choice. letters of dismissal shall be issued according to the rules of either of the interested churches.

Article IV. The Methodist pastor shall be the minister of the Federated church and said minister shall be expected to continue his association with his own body but in his ministrations to the federation shall recognize and live up to the basis on which it is organized.

Article V. A Presbyterian clergyman who has specialized in religious education shall be provided by the federation and shall have charge of the Sunday school and other religious activities.

Article VI. The property of both of the federating denominations shall remain in the hands of the trustee of each denomination and each denomination shall maintain its present relations with its governing board.

Article VII Each denomination shall maintain its present officers. There shall be created officers of the federation consisting of the pastor and educational director, ex-officio and five members elected from each of the two federating congregations. This council shall be known as the federated board.

Article VIII. The budget for local expenses shall be borne by the federation as such without reference to any ration.

Article IX. The collection for benevolences of the two churches shall be kept separate and administered as heretofore. No special collection may be taken without consent of the federated board.

Article X. The federation shall be in effect for at least two years, at the end of which time either church shall have the privilege of withdrawal. During that time none of the church property of either of the two federating churches may be disposed of and no new buildings undertaken.

Article XI. This constitution may be changed or amended by a two thrids vote of the representatives of each church who are present at a special meeting called for that purpose. Said meeting shall be anounced on two successive Sundays.

F. J. OAKES, HERO OF FORT SUMTER DIES

Maryville Friends of Prather Family Have Received Notice of His Death at New York Dec. 21.

Word has been received by Maryville friends of Francis J. Oakes Jr., and his wife, of Brookline, Mass., formerly Miss Mary Prather of this city, of the death on Sunday, Dec. 21, of Mr. Oakes's father, Francis James Oakes, who died in his apartment at the Hotel Plaza, New York.

Mr. Oakes was eighty years old and was for many years president of the Oakes Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of dyewood extracts at Astoria.

He was a Civil War veteran and made claim to the honor of having been the first soldier to fire a shot from Fort Sumter in defense of the Union.

The following article is taken from the New York Sun of Dec. 23:

"Mr. Oakes was a member of Battery E, First artillery, stationed at Fort Sumter in Charleston Harbor when the war broke out, and he often recalled his experiences following the Confederate demand for the surrender of the stronghold.

"As corporal of the guard, he said, it was my duty to relieve the guard stationed on the ramparts, and I was engaged in that duty when I saw the first shot fired from Fort Johnson.

"We opened fire in reply at 7 o'clock. Gun No. 1 was under command of Sergeant Kearney and gun No. 2 was under my command and gun No. 3 was under the command of Corporal Ellerbrook.

When the order was given to fire we all wanted to be first. Ours were breech loading guns. I have always believed that my gun went first, although of course that has been disputed by the other gunners. I still claim that I fired the first gun in defense of the Union."

A gold medal was presented to Mr. Oakes by the Chamber of Commerce on his return to New York City after the war. He lived with his family for many years at 22 Lefferts Place, Brooklyn, and organized the Oakes Manufacturing Company thirty-five years ago. He was a member of Lafayette Post G. A. R., and is survived by three daughters and two sons.

SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS IN 66 MISSOURI COUNTIES

Out of the sixty six counties in Missouri, whose county superintendent of schools, has completed the survey asked by the national teachers association the showing is a shortage of three per cent in the number of teachers and a total shortage of thriteen per cent, including teachers below the standard.

In order to supply the need for teachers, many teachers whose qualification were below standard have been employed. A national effort to increase the salaries of teachers is being made all over the country. Teachers salaries have not increased proportionately to those of other professions or to the high cost loving and this has taken many from the teaching ranks.

Some interesting figures are shown in this survey of County Superintendent Bert Cooper:

Total number of teaching positions including report 12075.

Total number of teachers who dropped out during the past year 2615.

Total number of new teachers entering Sept. 1919 2342.

Total shortage of teachers reported 886.

FIRE INSURANCE RATES GIVEN HIKE

INCREASE 20 TO 25 PER CENT EFFECTIVE JAN. 1.

ACCOUNT BUILDING COST

One Reason Given for Increase—Advanced Cost of Repairing Partially Destroyed Buildings.

Now comes an increase in fire insurance rates. Effective January 1, the increase, according to officials of the Missouri Inspection Bureau, is between 20 and 25 per cent more than the 1918 rates.

As one reason for the increased rates, attention was called to the fact the cost of repairing partly destroyed buildings had been advanced.

The new rates apply principally to these classes of insurance property:

Brick or stone dwellings, from 20 to 25 per cent.

Ordinary brick buildings, 17½ per cent.

Household goods, 20 to 25 per cent.

The following comparisons of dwelling rates are:

Brick, metal roof, 26 cents per $100; contents, 30 cents. Old rates, 22 cents and 26 cents, respectively.

Brick, shingle roof, 32 cents and 36 cents on contents. Old rates, 26 cents and 30 cents.

Frame, metal roof, 40 cents, and 44 cents on contents. Old rates 32 cents and 36 cents, respectively.

Frame, shingle roof, 44 cents, and 48 cents on contents. Old rates, 36 cents and 40 cents.

Missouri, it is said, is one of the few states without a fire marshal.

The Commerce Club of St. Joseph is to meet this week to take some action against the new rates, contending they are not too excessive and are altogether unnecessary.

HEARING OF TARWATER ON MURDER CHARGE HELD JAN. 13

Nathaniel Cruzen will be Special Prosecutor. Accused Held in Buchanan County Jail.

Gallatin—The hearing of Hugh Y. Tarwater, accused of first degree murder as a result of the killing of Wesley L. Robertson here Dec. 23, will be held in Gallatin, Jan. 13, Nathaniel Cruzen, special prosecutor, said today. The reason for waiting so long is that Tarwater's counsel have asked for the delay, which has been granted as an accomodation to them.

The warrant charging first degree murder has been issued and is in the hands of the sheriff. Tarwater is technically in the custody of the sheriff of Daviess' county now, although he is confined in the Buchanan county jail at St. Joseph. It is not expected that Tarwater will be returned to Gallatin until the day of his preliminary.

Cruzen was selected as special prosecutor in the place of L. B. Gillihan, the latter having arranged not to handle the case because he had represented Tarwater in the latter's libel suit against Robertson which is believed to have been the direct cause of the shooting. Scott Miller and Thomas Hicklin, attorney and life long friends of Robertson, will assist in the prosecution.

Farms That Pay

DO YOU REMEMBER? Back some few years when land all around you, farm after farm the best of them could be bought for half, yes many of them for less than half what you can buy them for today? Look at these farms today, compare the thrifty alfalfa fields of today with the stunted yellow corn field of the other day—the waiving fields of corn where cattails and cockle burrs once thrived. QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

Earle Williams in "The Wolf"

Earle Williams, Vitagraph star, surprised many of his professional friends recently on the occasion of his appearance in the role of a rough, uncouth character. Mr. Williams previously has been regarded as distinctly a drawing room gentleman type, though at times he has had more vigorous roles.

In "The Wolf", his latest picture, which will be shown at the Electric theatre on next Monday and Tuesday, Mr. Williams is cast as Jules Beaubien a rugged French-Canadian trapper. He plays the part wit ha realism and fidelity to type that is said to have amazed the film authorities.

"The Wolf" is an adaption of the famous play by Eugene Walter. It tells a story of the great northwest. Its scenes are laid in the picturesque surrounding of Lake Tahoe, Cal.
